

Looking for a General Automotive Master Technician. We are Independent repair facility with so much work we need to add another Technician to our team. We've been in business for almost 30 years with a great reputation working on all Domestic makes and Asian Imports And Some Europeans. We too have done our dealership time or had a boss with strict rules with unobtainable goals. We like to think that this is a sanctuary for those that are tired of all the games and bad experiences from the other jobs we've had in our lives. A place to work and be heard and valued for the hard work that we put in and not make it harder for us just to take time off or get a computer fixed that messes with our bottom line. If you are interested in joining us, here are a few perks that come with us.

You'll have your own company provided work station, no sharing so you can be more productive, with communications abilities with the service advisor's without having to leave your stall. The shop management systems are at your finger tips so you can easily access customer information without having to wait for the advisor's to get off the phone.

Former Master Technician owned company that's held every position in the industry from car porting, car washer, parts department to writing service in the later years after starting his businesses.

Will pay for update training on all Makes and ASE's while employed here.
